About Us

A program of the Montana Outfitters & Guides Association created in 2008, Big Hearts under the Big Sky is a service organization that provides high-quality therapeutic outdoor adventures — all at no cost — to those who have provided extraordinary services to our country and children who face life-threatening illnesses. Through this program, Big Hearts matches deserving participants with member outfitters to give them a healing, uplifting and memory-making trip in the heart of Montana.

BIG HEARTS AT A GLANCE

Big Hearts has served 110 families, totaling more than 500 people

49 MOGA Outfitter businesses have made these trips possible

More than $1.75M in donated Montana outdoor activities and in-kind goods

Thank You

Your generous contribution makes it possible for us to continue to advance the Big Hearts' mission and provide high-quality outdoor adventures with MOGA Member Outfitters, at NO COST, to those who have provided extraordinary service to our country and those who face the challenge of a life-threatening illness. Our goal for this program is to "never say no" to our national affiliates who contact us with nominations of deserving individuals and families in need of this service.
